

Green wealth of the nature was spreading in the wave of mountains before the development for the SPring-8 facility site (1989-5-20).

Rocky mountains were crashed by explosion to make a flat land for the facility site.

Rock properties of the ground in the facility site were investigated.