

Bird's eye view of the SPring-8 facility in 1995.
Construction of the accelerator building for the linac, synchrotron and storage ring was almost completed.

The facility was covered with snow in winter 1995 much more than usual, and a "UFO" appeared in the facility site.