

The SPring-8 facility was opened to the public on the third Sunday in April as a part of the Science and Technology Promotion Week.

String quartet playing restful music in the main building on the opening day.

The visitors enjoyed in the refreshment booths.