

Summer Science Seminar for high school students was held in the main hall of the Center for Advanced Science and Technology (CAST). About 500 students participated to hear lectures from SPring-8.

Science Summer Camp for high school students was held at SPring-8. Students experienced beamline alignment by using a surveying instrument.

